STATE CHAPTER MOTHER NAMED;
HIGH SCHOOL COEDS RECEIVE
AWARDS FROM FHA

MISSOULA--

Mrs. Phyllis Senef, Hobson, was named Future Homemakers of America State Chapter Mother for 1972-73 during the 25th annual state meeting of the Montana Association of the FHA at the University of Montana.

Mrs. Senef, several other women and dozens of high school coeds from throughout the state were honored during the concluding banquet of the annual state FHA meeting over the weekend.

The FHA chapters from Big Sandy and Nashua were named outstanding chapters by the state FHA organization for overall performance and involvement in community activities during the past yerr.

Mrs. Helen Maxwell, chapter adviser from Big Sandy, and Mrs. Faye Ripley, chapter mother from Laurel, received the honorary memberships in the FHA for assisting the FHA members in their respective communities and being involved in activities in their homes and communities.

Peggy Myhre of Circle, who is a student at Montana State University, Bozeman, received the $200 Montana Power Company Scholarship.

Four high school girls each received a $200 FHA scholarship--Cheryl Rustan, Glasgow; Carleen Hedlun, Lewistown; Gloria Flansaas, Malta, and Glenda Dimock, Three Forks.

The following girls each received an FHA Senior Homemaker Award during the 25th annual state FHA meeting:
